- A. Yes, in all places
- B. No
- C. Yes, but only in your vehicle
- D. Yes, but only on your property

In Alabama, it is not legal to carry a concealed firearm without a permit. The state requires individuals to obtain a permit to carry a concealed firearm, which involves meeting certain requirements and going through the necessary application process. Therefore, carrying a concealed firearm without a permit in Alabama is not allowed.

2. Is it legal to carry a concealed weapon in a vehicle without a permit in Alabama?

- A. Yes
- B. No
- C. Only in the glove compartment
- D. Only if the firearm is unloaded

In Alabama, it is unlawful to carry a concealed weapon in a vehicle without a permit. The correct answer is B. Carrying a concealed weapon in a vehicle without a permit is a violation of Alabama gun laws. It is important for individuals to understand and follow the laws regarding carrying concealed weapons to avoid legal consequences.

3. For what duration is a concealed carry permit issued in Alabama before it needs renewal?

- A. 1 year
- B. 2 years
- C. 5 years
- D. Indefinite

In Alabama, a concealed carry permit is issued for a duration of 5 years before it needs to be renewed. During this period, permit holders are allowed to carry a concealed weapon in accordance with the state's regulations and requirements. It is important for permit holders to keep track of their permit expiration date to ensure that they renew it on time and continue to legally carry a concealed weapon.

4. Are background checks required for private gun sales in Alabama?

- A. Yes, for all sales
- B. No
- C. Yes, but only for sales of handguns
- D. Yes, but only for sales at gun shows

In Alabama, background checks are not required for private gun sales. This means that individuals can legally buy and sell firearms to each other without the need for a background check. While federally licensed firearm dealers are required to conduct background checks on all sales, private sales between individuals do not fall under the same regulatory requirement in Alabama.

5. Are private firearm sales allowed in Alabama without a background check?

- A. Yes, with no restrictions
- B. Yes, but the buyer must have a permit
- C. No
- D. Yes, but only for shotguns and rifles

In Alabama, private firearm sales are allowed without requiring a background check. This means that individuals can legally buy and sell firearms to each other without going through a background check process. This exemption from background checks for private sales is significant because it allows for more flexibility in firearm transactions between private individuals without the need for additional paperwork or regulatory involvement.

6. Is open carry of a handgun legal in Alabama without a permit?

- A. Yes, without restrictions
- B. Yes, but only in rural areas
- C. No, it is not legal
- D. Yes, but with certain restrictions

In Alabama, open carry of a handgun is legal without a permit. This means that individuals are allowed to openly carry a handgun in public places without the need for a permit, subject to any specific restrictions or prohibitions set by state or local regulations. This aligns with Alabama being an open carry state where individuals have the right to openly carry firearms for self-defense purposes. Therefore, option A is correct. Option B is incorrect as open carry is not limited to rural areas only. Option C is incorrect as open carry is legal in Alabama. Option D is incorrect as there are no specific restrictions mentioned in the state law regarding open carry of handguns without a permit.

7. Which of the following locations is it illegal to carry a firearm in Alabama?

- A. Places of religious worship
- B. Public schools
- C. Hospitals
- D. All of the above

In Alabama, it is illegal to carry a firearm in places of religious worship, public schools, and hospitals. This means that the correct answer, "All of the above," is the most suitable choice as carrying firearms in these locations is prohibited by the state's laws. It is essential for individuals to be aware of these restrictions to ensure they comply with the law and avoid potential legal consequences.

8. What is required to legally sell a firearm privately in Alabama?

- A. A bill of sale
- B. Background check on the buyer
- C. Verification of the buyer's concealed carry permit
- D. No specific requirement

In Alabama, there are no specific laws or requirements for individuals to sell a firearm privately. This means that no background check, bill of sale, or verification of the buyer's concealed carry permit is legally required for a private firearm sale in the state. It is important for individuals engaging in private firearm sales to exercise caution and follow best practices to ensure responsible ownership and transfer of firearms.

9. Can you carry a concealed handgun in a bar in Alabama?

- A. Yes, with a permit
- B. No, it's prohibited irrespective of having a permit
- C. Yes, but only if you're not consuming alcohol
- D. Yes, without restrictions

In Alabama, it is generally unlawful to carry a concealed handgun in a bar. However, with a proper concealed carry permit, which is indicated by choice A, it may be permitted to carry a concealed handgun in a bar. It is important to note that carrying a concealed handgun in a bar does not imply consuming alcohol while carrying. Safety measures and responsible gun ownership should always be adhered to when carrying a firearm in any location.

10. What must be done to legally transfer a handgun to another individual in Alabama?

- A. Notarize a bill of sale
- B. No special requirements
- C. Perform a background check if through a dealer
- D. Register the handgun with local law enforcement

In Alabama, to legally transfer a handgun to another individual, you must perform a background check if the transfer is conducted through a dealer. This requirement is in place to help ensure that the recipient of the handgun is legally allowed to possess a firearm. It is important to follow this procedure to comply with state laws and promote responsible gun ownership practices. The other options are not correct because notarizing a bill of sale may not be sufficient to meet the legal requirements for transferring a handgun, there are special requirements in Alabama when transferring firearms through a dealer, and there is no handgun registration requirement with local law enforcement in Alabama.
