1. Which of the following best describes Alabama's stance on 'Castle Doctrine'?

- A. It has no Castle Doctrine law
- B. You may use deadly force in self-defense with no duty to retreat in your home
- C. You must always retreat if possible, regardless of the location
- D. Deadly force cannot be used in self-defense

Alabama's stance on 'Castle Doctrine' is that you may use deadly force in self-defense with no duty to retreat in your home. This means that you have the right to defend yourself with a weapon, including deadly force, without having to retreat if you are in your home. Option A is incorrect because Alabama does have a Castle Doctrine law. Option C is incorrect because there are situations where retreat may not be possible, and option D is incorrect because Alabama recognizes the use of deadly force in self-defense in certain circumstances.

2. Which of the following locations is it illegal to carry a firearm in Alabama?

- A. In a vehicle without a permit
- B. Courthouses
- C. National parks
- D. All of the above

In Alabama, it is illegal to carry a firearm in courthouses. This restriction helps maintain safety and security within these sensitive locations where legal proceedings occur. Courthouses are considered high-security areas where the presence of firearms could pose a risk to those inside. Therefore, carrying a firearm in a courthouse without proper authorization is prohibited under Alabama gun laws.

3. What is required to purchase a handgun in Alabama?

- A. A background check
- B. A state-issued permit
- C. Proof of Alabama residency
- D. All of the above

To purchase a handgun in Alabama, all of the listed requirements are necessary. A background check is typically conducted to ensure the eligibility of the individual to own a firearm. In Alabama, a state-issued permit is required to purchase a handgun legally. Additionally, proof of Alabama residency is typically requested as part of the process. Therefore, all three options - a background check, a state-issued permit, and proof of Alabama residency - are indispensable for purchasing a handgun in Alabama.

4. Is it legal to openly carry a handgun in public in Alabama without a permit?

- A. Yes, without any restrictions
- B. No
- C. Yes, but the handgun must be unloaded
- D. Yes, but only in rural areas

In Alabama, it is legal to openly carry a handgun in public without a permit, as stated in choice A. Alabama is an open carry state, which means that individuals can openly carry a handgun in public without the need for a permit or license, as long as they are not prohibited by law from possessing a firearm. This makes choice A the correct answer.

5. Is it legal to carry a concealed firearm in Alabama without a permit?

- A. Yes, in all places
- B. No
- C. Yes, but only in your vehicle
- D. Yes, but only on your property

In Alabama, it is not legal to carry a concealed firearm without a permit. The state requires individuals to obtain a permit to carry a concealed firearm, which involves meeting certain requirements and going through the necessary application process. Therefore, carrying a concealed firearm without a permit in Alabama is not allowed.

6. Is open carry of a handgun legal in Alabama without a permit?

- A. Yes, without restrictions
- B. Yes, but only in rural areas
- C. No, it is completely illegal
- D. Yes, but only if the firearm is unloaded

Open carry of a handgun without a permit is legal in Alabama without restrictions. Alabama is an open carry state, which means that individuals can openly carry firearms, including handguns, in public places without needing a permit to do so. It is important to note that while open carry is generally allowed in Alabama, there are certain locations where firearms are prohibited, such as courthouses, schools, and government buildings.

7. In a case of self-defense, does Alabama have a 'Stand Your Ground' law?

- A. Yes
- B. No
- C. Only in one's home
- D. Only outside one's home

Alabama does have a 'Stand Your Ground' law which allows individuals to use deadly force in self-defense without an obligation to retreat first, both in their homes and in public places where they have a legal right to be. This law removes the duty to retreat that was present in the past and allows individuals to defend themselves with force if they believe they are facing the threat of death or severe bodily harm.

8. What are the consequences for carrying a firearm into a prohibited area in Alabama?

- A. A warning for the first offense
- B. Fine only
- C. Fine and possible jail time
- D. Mandatory jail time

Carrying a firearm into a prohibited area in Alabama is a serious offense and can result in consequences such as a fine and possible jail time. A warning for the first offense, as mentioned in option A, may not be the case depending on the situation and previous offenses. Option B, a fine only, may not be a strong enough punishment to deter individuals from committing this offense again. Option D, mandatory jail time, is not always a consequence for carrying a firearm into a prohibited area and may only be applicable in extreme cases. Therefore, option C is the correct and most accurate choice as it reflects the potential consequences in a broader sense.

9. Is it mandatory to inform a police officer that you're carrying a firearm during a traffic stop in Alabama?

- A. Yes
- B. No
- C. Only if asked
- D. Only if you are carrying concealed

For this question, the correct answer is option B. In Alabama, it is not mandatory to inform a police officer that you're carrying a firearm during a traffic stop. While it may be courteous and recommended to inform the officer, there is no legal obligation to do so. Option A is incorrect because it states that it is mandatory to inform the police officer, which is not the case. Option C is also incorrect because it suggests that informing the officer is only necessary if asked, when in reality it is not mandatory at all. Option D is incorrect because it limits the requirement to only those carrying a concealed firearm, when in fact it is not necessary for any type of firearm.

10. What age must an individual be to legally purchase a handgun in Alabama?

- A. 18 years old
- B. 19 years old
- C. 21 years old
- D. 25 years old

In Alabama, individuals must be at least 21 years old to legally purchase a handgun. This age requirement is in line with federal regulations for purchasing handguns from licensed dealers. It is crucial to adhere to this age restriction to ensure responsible firearm ownership and usage.
