- A. Civic engagement
- B. Social justice
- C. Community service
- D. All of the above

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. emphasizes a multifaceted approach to service and leadership, which includes civic engagement, social justice, and community service. These areas are integral to the sorority's mission and values, reflecting its commitment to improving the social and economic conditions of communities, particularly for African Americans and other marginalized groups. Civic engagement involves encouraging members to participate actively in their communities, including voting, advocacy, and public service, thus fostering a sense of responsibility and community involvement. Social justice is a critical focus, as the organization strives to address systemic inequalities and promote fair treatment and equal rights for all individuals. Community service is a cornerstone of the sorority's activities, where members contribute their time and resources to uplift those in need, thereby enhancing the quality of life in their communities. Given that all these areas are vital to the mission of Alpha Kappa Alpha, the choice that encompasses all three is the most accurate representation of the sorority's focus and goals.

2. Who is the current Supreme Basileus of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.?

- A. Charletta Wilson Jacks
- B. Danette Anthony Reed
- C. Carolyn Gause Randolph
- D. Nadine Vargas Stewart

The current Supreme Basileus of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. is Danette Anthony Reed. She holds this distinguished position, which is pivotal in guiding the organization and overseeing its initiatives and governance. The role of Supreme Basileus is significant not only in terms of leadership but also in representing the sorority on various platforms. Danette Anthony Reed's leadership brings experience and vision, aligning with the sorority's mission of service and empowerment. Her term emphasizes the sorority's commitment to sisterhood, scholarship, and service to the community, reflective of the foundational values of Alpha Kappa Alpha. The other names mentioned are prominent figures in the sorority but do not currently hold the office of Supreme Basileus, which is why Danette Anthony Reed is recognized as the correct answer.

3. How many years of service does one need to achieve the Silver Star recognition in Alpha Kappa Alpha?

- A. 15 Years
- B. 25 Years
- C. 35 Years
- D. 50 Years

The Silver Star recognition in Alpha Kappa Alpha is awarded to members who have demonstrated 25 years of service to the organization. This level of recognition honors not only the longevity of commitment but also the contributions made over the years in promoting the sorority's mission and values. Achieving this milestone reflects a deep dedication to service, leadership, and sisterhood within the organization. Recognizing members who have engaged for 25 years encourages ongoing participation and highlights the importance of long-term commitment to both the sorority and the community.

4. How many active members are required to maintain a chapter in the Far Western Region?

- A. 25
- B. 29
- C. 32
- D. 37

The requirement for a chapter in the Far Western Region to maintain its active status is based on the necessity for a sufficient number of engaged members who can fulfill the obligations and responsibilities of the organization. In this context, having 29 active members ensures that the chapter can participate effectively in regional and national programs, create a robust support system, and uphold the mission of Alpha Kappa Alpha. This number strikes a balance between maintaining a manageable chapter size and enabling the chapter to operate efficiently with adequate leadership and participation.

5. What is the slogan of the AKA Health Initiative?

- A. "Healthy Lifestyles, Healthy Futures"
- B. "Healthy Bodies, Healthy Minds"
- C. "Nutrition for Excellence"
- D. "Wellness Through Leadership"

The correct slogan of the AKA Health Initiative is "Healthy Lifestyles, Healthy Futures." This slogan encapsulates the essence of the initiative, emphasizing the importance of adopting healthy habits and lifestyles that can lead to better health outcomes and overall wellness in the future. The focus is on proactive health management, encouraging individuals to make choices that benefit their physical, mental, and emotional well-being, thereby laying the groundwork for a healthier future. The significance of this slogan aligns with the overarching goals of promoting health awareness, disease prevention, and active living within communities. It serves not only as a reminder of the importance of health but also as a call to action for members to lead by example and promote these values in their circles. While the other options highlight various aspects of health, none capture the comprehensive approach of lifestyle and its long-term impact on the future as effectively as this slogan does. Thus, "Healthy Lifestyles, Healthy Futures" stands out as the definitive guiding principle of the initiative.

6. Who is a sophomore member of Alpha Kappa Alpha?

- A. Sarah Meriweather Nutter
- B. Anna Eastern Brown
- C. Ethel Jones Mowbray
- D. Beulah Burke

Sarah Meriweather Nutter is recognized as a sophomore member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated. Her significance in the organization is tied to her participation and contributions during the early formation years of the sorority. This designation refers particularly to her status when she joined the organization, highlighting her early involvement and the progress of Alpha Kappa Alpha in its formative stages. The other individuals on the list, while all important figures in the history of Alpha Kappa Alpha, are not classified as sophomore members in the same context. Each of them played significant roles and contributed to the growth and development of the sorority, but Sarah Meriweather Nutter specifically is identified with this designation due to her timeline of membership. This reinforces the unique historical context of each member's journey within the organization and their varying roles through different phases of its history.

7. Which title corresponds with the role of Karma Nicolis in the Eta Lambda Omega chapter?

- A. Basileus
- B. Anti Basileus
- C. Grammateus
- D. Corresponding Secretary

The title that corresponds with the role of Karma Nicolis in the Eta Lambda Omega chapter is Grammateus. The Grammateus serves as the recording secretary, responsible for keeping accurate records of meetings, managing correspondence, and ensuring the smooth operation of documentation within the chapter. This role is vital in keeping members informed of decisions and actions taken within the organization, as well as maintaining a historical record of the chapter's activities. Understanding the importance of this position highlights the need for effective communication and organization within Alpha Kappa Alpha chapters. The Grammateus plays a crucial role in fostering transparency and facilitating collaboration among members, which are essential components of effective leadership and chapter functioning.

8. What is the rank order of chapter events in Alpha Kappa Alpha?

- A. Regional Director, Supreme Basileus, Chapter Basileus
- B. Supreme Basileus, Regional Director, Chapter Basileus
- C. Chapter Basileus, Supreme Grammateus, Supreme Basileus
- D. Supreme Grammateus, Chapter Basileus, Regional Director

The rank order of chapter events in Alpha Kappa Alpha reflects the hierarchy and roles within the organization. The correct answer, which places the Supreme Basileus first, demonstrates the highest level of leadership within Alpha Kappa Alpha. The Supreme Basileus serves as the president of the whole sorority and presides over major events and initiatives, underlining the overall direction of the organization. Following the Supreme Basileus, the Regional Director is responsible for overseeing a specific region of chapters, ensuring that regional events align with the organization's mission and policies. The Chapter Basileus, being at the chapter level, leads the individual chapter and takes direction from the higher ranks while also conducting chapter-specific events. This hierarchical structure illustrates the flow of authority and accountability within Alpha Kappa Alpha, emphasizing the importance of leadership at each level to ensure effective governance and programming throughout the organization. The sequence is thus a logical reflection of the roles assigned to each position, starting from the most senior level to the chapter-specific leadership.

9. What type of events does Alpha Kappa Alpha prioritize to fulfill its mission?

- A. Gaming tournaments
- B. Cultural and service-oriented events
- C. Only fundraising galas
- D. Sports competitions

Alpha Kappa Alpha focuses on cultural and service-oriented events to fulfill its mission. This emphasis aligns with the sorority's commitment to community service, leadership development, and the promotion of education and social justice. Events that are oriented towards culture and service allow members to engage with their communities meaningfully while also celebrating heritage and fostering personal growth. Cultural events provide opportunities for education about history and diverse traditions, while service-oriented activities emphasize the importance of giving back to the community, thereby aligning with the organization's values. The combination of these types of events reflects the organization's ideals of sisterhood, scholarship, and service, which are core components of the broader mission of Alpha Kappa Alpha. In contrast, gaming tournaments, only fundraising galas, and sports competitions do not capture the full scope of the organization's objectives. While fundraising is an important aspect, it is often integrated within service-oriented events rather than being the sole focus.

10. What are the "Five Targets" in Alpha Kappa Alpha's strategic plan?

- A. Targeting global health and women's rights
- B. Only focusing on local community projects
- C. Establishing business partnerships
- D. Promoting cultural events exclusively

The "Five Targets" in Alpha Kappa Alpha's strategic plan emphasize critical areas that support the organization's mission of service, advocacy, and community development. Targeting global health and women's rights aligns perfectly with this mission, as it highlights the focus on addressing significant social issues affecting women, families, and communities worldwide. This focus promotes initiatives that advocate for health equity, domestic violence prevention, and overall women's wellness, reflecting the values of leadership and service central to the sorority. The inclusion of global health and women's rights allows Alpha Kappa Alpha to engage on a broader scale, advocating for policies and programs that impact marginalized populations. By addressing these vital issues, the organization demonstrates its commitment to creating sustainable solutions while empowering women and promoting social justice. The other choices do not encapsulate the comprehensive and strategic focus required in the organizational mission. While local community projects, business partnerships, and cultural events can be part of the activities undertaken by the organization, they do not represent the holistic approach that the Five Targets encompass, especially in relation to impactful global initiatives.
