- 1. What kind of training is considered acceptable for demonstrating competency with a firearm for the Florida CWFL?
 - A. Military training only
 - B. Any firearms safety or training course available to the public
 - C. A course taught by an NRA-certified instructor only
 - D. Self-taught firearm safety

Any firearms safety or training course available to the public is considered acceptable for demonstrating competency with a firearm for the Florida CWFL. This includes courses taught by NRA-certified instructors, as well as other courses available to the general public. Military training is not the only acceptable form of training, and self-taught firearm safety may not provide the necessary knowledge and skills needed to safely handle and use a firearm.

- 2. Which of the following is true about carrying a concealed firearm in Florida without a license?
 - A. It is allowed for individuals over 25
 - B. It is a felony offense
 - C. It is a misdemeanor for the first offense
 - D. It is allowed if the person is a military veteran

Carrying a concealed firearm in Florida without a license is a felony offense. This means that regardless of the person's age or military status, it is illegal and considered a serious crime. Option A is incorrect because, in Florida, the minimum age to obtain a concealed carry license is 21, not 25. Option C is also incorrect because it suggests that carrying without a license is only a misdemeanor, which is not true. Option D is incorrect because being a military veteran does not exempt someone from needing a concealed carry license in Florida.

- 3. What is the minimum age requirement to apply for a Florida Concealed Weapon or Firearm License?
 - A. 18 years old
 - B. 19 years old
 - C. 21 years old
 - D. 25 years old

Some people may incorrectly think that the minimum age requirement for a Florida Concealed Weapon or Firearm License is 18 years old because that is the minimum age for purchasing a rifle or shotgun in Florida. However, the minimum age to apply for a concealed weapon or firearm license is actually 21 years old. This is to ensure that applicants have the maturity and responsibility necessary to carry a concealed weapon or firearm. Answers B and D are incorrect as they are not the minimum age requirement.

4. Which of these locations is off-limits when carrying a concealed weapon with a CWFL?

- A. State national parks
- B. Bars or establishments that serve alcohol
- C. Private properties with a 'No Gun' sign
- D. All of the above

The other options are incorrect because carrying a concealed weapon with a CWFL is not allowed in state national parks, bars or establishments that serve alcohol, or private properties with a 'No Gun' sign. These locations are considered off-limits for the safety of the individual carrying the concealed weapon and those around them. It is important to follow these restrictions and always be aware of where it is legal to carry a concealed weapon.

5. Which of these is not a valid reason for the denial of a Florida CWFL?

- A. Failure to disclose a conviction
- B. Incomplete application
- C. Lack of a valid photo ID
- D. Disagreement with the Second Amendment

Denial of a Florida CWFL can occur for various reasons such as failure to disclose a conviction, having an incomplete application, or lacking a valid photo ID. However, having a disagreement with the Second Amendment is not a valid reason for denying a Florida CWFL. The Second Amendment to the United States Constitution grants individuals the right to keep and bear arms, and personal opinions or beliefs regarding this amendment do not affect an individual's eligibility for a CWFL.

6. How long is a Florida CWFL valid before it needs to be renewed?

- A. 5 years
- B. 7 years
- C. 10 years
- D. Lifetime

A Florida Concealed Weapon or Firearm License (CWFL) is valid for 7 years before it needs to be renewed. During this period, holders of the license can legally carry a concealed weapon or firearm in the state of Florida. It is important to keep track of the expiration date of the license to ensure compliance with the law. Option A - 5 years, Option C - 10 years, and Option D - Lifetime are incorrect because a Florida CWFL is specifically valid for a period of 7 years before it requires renewal.

7. What documentation is required to prove completion of a firearms safety course for a CWFL application?

- A. A notarized letter from the instructor
- B. An NRA certification
- C. A course completion certificate
- D. All of the above

The correct answer is D, "All of the above." When applying for a Florida Concealed Weapon or Firearm License (CWFL), documentation proving completion of a firearms safety course is necessary. This documentation can come in various forms, including a notarized letter from the instructor, an NRA certification, or a course completion certificate. By requiring all of these options as valid forms of documentation, the state ensures that applicants have received proper training in firearms safety before obtaining a CWFL.

8. For the purpose of obtaining a CWFL in Florida, which of the following would be considered proof of competency with a firearm?

- A. A hunter's safety course certificate
- B. An NRA firearms safety course certificate
- C. Documented evidence of military firearms training
- D. All of the above

To obtain a Florida Concealed Weapon or Firearm License (CWFL), applicants need to demonstrate proof of competency with a firearm. In Florida, all of the options listed - a hunter's safety course certificate, an NRA firearms safety course certificate, and documented evidence of military firearms training - are considered valid forms of proof of competency. Each of these options signifies that the individual has received proper training and has the necessary skills to handle a firearm safely. Therefore, selecting "All of the above" as the answer is correct in this scenario.

9. Can a CWFL holder carry a concealed weapon in a Florida school?

- A. Yes, without restrictions
- B. Yes, but only if they are a teacher
- C. No, carrying in schools is prohibited
- D. Yes, but only with special permission

No, carrying a concealed weapon in Florida schools is prohibited for CWFL holders. Schools are designated as gun-free zones in Florida, and the law prohibits the possession of firearms on school grounds, unless authorized by the school or school district. It is important for CWFL holders to be aware of the specific restrictions and prohibited areas where they cannot carry concealed weapons.

10. What happens if a CWFL holder moves to another state?

- A. The license is immediately invalidated
- B. They have 30 days to notify the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services
- C. They must surrender their license
- D. The license remains valid until its expiration date

When a CWFL holder moves to another state, the license does not become immediately invalidated, as stated in option A. This would be an incorrect answer because the license remains valid until its expiration date, which is the correct answer - option D. Option C is incorrect as well because CWFL holders do not have to surrender their license when moving out of state. The most accurate response is option B as CWFL holders need to notify the Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services within 30 days of moving to another state.
