

South Carolina Highway Patrol Practice Test (Sample)

Study Guide

Everything you need from our exam experts!

Copyright © 2025 by Examzify - A Kaluba Technologies Inc. product.

ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

No part of this book may be reproduced or transferred in any form or by any means, graphic, electronic, or mechanical, including photocopying, recording, web distribution, taping, or by any information storage retrieval system, without the written permission of the author.

Notice: Examzify makes every reasonable effort to obtain from reliable sources accurate, complete, and timely information about this product.

SAMPLE

Questions

- 1. Which word describes someone who is bold and shameless?
 - A. Timid
 - B. Brazen
 - C. Reserved
 - D. Humble

- 2. A terse statement is characterized by being:
 - A. Long and detailed
 - B. Poetic
 - C. Short and concise
 - D. Ambiguous

- 3. A dish described as palatable is:
 - A. Unpleasant
 - B. Flavorful
 - C. Burnt
 - D. Cold

- 4. What does the word presume mean?
 - A. To guess
 - B. To suspect
 - C. To presuppose
 - D. To conclude

- 5. What is the meaning of corroborate?
 - A. Challenge
 - B. Support with evidence
 - C. Question
 - D. Verify independently

- 6. What does it mean to convey something?
 - A. To restrict
 - B. To carry
 - C. To invade
 - D. To enjoy

- 7. Which word describes an attitude that lacks modesty or is excessively bold?
- A. Timorous
 - B. Audacious
 - C. Bashful
 - D. Fearful
- 8. What is the definition of the verb that means to mix or combine?
- A. Blend
 - B. Mingle
 - C. Stir
 - D. Combine
- 9. What do you call someone or something that came before another?
- A. Successor
 - B. Predecessor
 - C. Contemporary
 - D. Follower
- 10. What is the meaning of the term "discriminating"?
- A. Indifferent
 - B. Discerning
 - C. Confused
 - D. Neglectful

Answers

SAMPLE

- 1. B
- 2. C
- 3. B
- 4. C
- 5. B
- 6. B
- 7. B
- 8. B
- 9. B
- 10. B

SAMPLE

Explanations

SAMPLE

1. Which word describes someone who is bold and shameless?

- A. Timid
- B. Brazen
- C. Reserved
- D. Humble

The term that best describes someone who is bold and shameless is "brazen." This word conveys a sense of audacity and a lack of hesitation or shame in one's actions, often suggesting that the individual acts boldly without regard for social norms or potential consequences. In contrast, other choices depict characteristics that are the opposite of boldness. For instance, "timid" implies a lack of courage or assertiveness, indicating someone who is hesitant or afraid to take risks. "Reserved" refers to a person who is restrained in their behavior, often keeping their thoughts or feelings to themselves, rather than being openly bold. "Humble" denotes a lack of arrogance or pride, suggesting a modest demeanor, which again contrasts with the idea of being shameless or brazen.

2. A terse statement is characterized by being:

- A. Long and detailed
- B. Poetic
- C. Short and concise
- D. Ambiguous

A terse statement is characterized by being short and concise, which means it conveys its message using minimal words and avoids unnecessary detail. This quality makes terse statements clear and direct, allowing for easy understanding without elaborate descriptions. The term "terse" specifically implies brevity to the point of being abrupt, often enhancing the impact of the message by stripping away any superfluous or decorative language. Such statements are effective in communication when clarity and directness are needed.

3. A dish described as palatable is:

- A. Unpleasant
- B. Flavorful
- C. Burnt
- D. Cold

A dish described as palatable indicates that it is agreeable to the taste or enjoyable to eat. The term "palatable" specifically refers to food that is not only acceptable in flavor but also pleasing enough to encourage consumption. Therefore, flavorful captures the essence of palatability, suggesting that the dish has an appealing taste that enhances the dining experience. This characteristic is what makes a dish enjoyable and desirable. Options indicating unpleasantness, being burnt, or cold, do not align with the definition of palatable since they suggest negative or undesirable qualities in food preparation or serving.

4. What does the word presume mean?

- A. To guess
- B. To suspect
- C. To presuppose
- D. To conclude

The word "presume" refers to the act of taking something for granted or assuming something is true without certain proof. When you presuppose something, you are accepting it as a fact based on prior knowledge or evidence, which aligns closely with the meaning of "presume." This term often involves making an assumption in a scenario where there's a reasonable basis for that assumption, even if definitive proof is lacking. In contrast to the other choices, guessing implies a lack of basis for the assumption, suspecting involves a feeling of doubt or uncertainty, and concluding suggests arriving at a decision or opinion after consideration or evidence, rather than taking something for granted. Therefore, "presuppose" captures the essence of presuming because it involves the idea of assumption based on what is accepted as true, rather than uncertainty or conjecture.

5. What is the meaning of corroborate?

- A. Challenge
- B. Support with evidence
- C. Question
- D. Verify independently

Corroborate means to support a claim or statement with additional evidence or information. In the context of law and investigations, corroboration is crucial because it strengthens the reliability of evidence or testimony by providing independent validation, thereby enhancing its credibility. This process often involves obtaining facts or details from different sources that all point to the same conclusion, reinforcing the original assertion. The other choices, while related to questioning evidence or facts, do not encapsulate the essence of corroboration. Instead, they suggest either a challenge to the statement or a form of questioning that doesn't imply support. Corroboration specifically highlights the act of providing supportive evidence rather than merely verifying or questioning it independently without additional supportive details.

6. What does it mean to convey something?

- A. To restrict
- B. To carry
- C. To invade
- D. To enjoy

To convey something means to carry or communicate it from one place to another, or to express an idea or message clearly. In the context of communication, it highlights the act of transferring information or feelings between individuals or groups. This can encompass various forms such as verbal communication, written language, or even non-verbal cues like body language. The other options do not align with the definition of convey. For instance, to restrict implies limiting or controlling access, which is unrelated to the act of carrying or transferring. Invade suggests entering forcefully or aggressively, which does not reflect the communication aspect inherent in conveying. Enjoying is about experiencing pleasure, which again diverges from the concept of transmitting information or ideas. Therefore, the correct interpretation of conveying something is indeed to carry it in terms of communication or transfer.

7. Which word describes an attitude that lacks modesty or is excessively bold?

- A. Timorous
- B. Audacious
- C. Bashful
- D. Fearful

The term "audacious" accurately describes an attitude that is excessively bold or daring, often to the point of being disrespectful or lacking in modesty. This word conveys a sense of confidence that can cross the line into brazen or reckless behavior. Individuals who are audacious might take risks that others would avoid due to a lack of humility or restraint. This aligns perfectly with the query regarding an attitude characterized by excessive boldness. In contrast, "timorous" refers to someone who is shy or lacking confidence, "bashful" indicates a person who is socially awkward or hesitant, and "fearful" describes someone who exhibits a sense of dread or apprehension. Each of these alternatives represents a lack of boldness or assertiveness, which is the opposite of the described attitude. Thus, audacious stands out as the correct choice for describing an excessively bold demeanor.

8. What is the definition of the verb that means to mix or combine?

- A. Blend
- B. Mingle
- C. Stir
- D. Combine

The term that best describes the action of mixing or combining elements is "blend." This verb specifically conveys the idea of merging different ingredients or components into a uniform mixture. While "mingling" does suggest an interaction between items, it often implies a more social or less structured form of mixing, such as people coming together rather than a thorough combination of substances. "Stir" refers to the act of moving a substance around to mix it, but it doesn't fully capture the idea of bringing together distinct items in a cohesive manner; it's more about the action applied to a mixture. The verb "combine" might seem fitting, as it denotes putting elements together. However, "blend" better encompasses the smooth integration of those elements into one cohesive whole, which is synonymous with mixing properly. Thus, "blend" is the most accurate choice for the definition that specifies the complete merging of components.

9. What do you call someone or something that came before another?

- A. Successor
- B. Predecessor
- C. Contemporary
- D. Follower

The term used to describe someone or something that came before another is "predecessor." In various contexts, such as history, business, or academics, a predecessor refers to an individual or entity that precedes another, often in a particular position, role, or timeline. For instance, in a corporate setting, the predecessor might be the individual who held a management position before the current manager. Understanding the term 'predecessor' is important as it highlights the significance of prior influences and contributions that shape the present scenario or the current individual's role. Recognizing predecessors helps in understanding continuity and change within organizations, relationships, and historical events. In contrast, terms like "successor" refer to someone who follows another in a role, "contemporary" denotes someone existing or occurring at the same time, and "follower" typically implies someone who comes after in a more casual sense, such as in social media or general hierarchy. Each of these terms has distinct meanings and applications, making it essential to use 'predecessor' when indicating something or someone that came before.

10. What is the meaning of the term "discriminating"?

A. Indifferent

B. Discerning

C. Confused

D. Neglectful

The term "discriminating" refers to having the ability to make fine or subtle distinctions between different things, which aligns with the meaning of "discerning." This suggests a level of careful judgment or insight in evaluating options or choices. For example, a discriminating buyer can differentiate between various qualities of products and select the best one based on informed criteria. In contrast, the other terms like "indifferent," "confused," and "neglectful" do not capture this essence of discernment. Indifference implies a lack of interest or concern, confusion denotes a state of being unable to think clearly, and neglectful suggests carelessness or failure to pay attention. None of these convey the nuanced understanding inherent in the concept of being discriminating.